Wabash Mutual Telephone

in partnership with

FRS & NTCA have conducted this annual survey for several years in order to help improve the quality of service to citizens and communities throughout rural America. Since young people are no strangers to telecommunications their need for advanced services is vital to the continued growth and sustainability of rural communities such as ours. Wabash Mutual Telephone in conjunction with FRS & NTCA recognize this and encourage our area youth ages 14-23 to complete the online survey in hope for us to better gauge the telecommunications usage and needs among rural youth both now and in the future.

This is NOT a marketing survey, and students completing the surveys will NOT be contacted by any of the organizations conducting the survey, all information will be kept confidential and will never be sold for any purpose.
